Globe Inn,

ONE AT, NEAR THE DIAMOND, GETTYSBURG, PA.—The undersigned would most respectfully inform his numerous friends and the public generally, that he has purchased that long established and well known Hotel, the “Globe Inn,” in York street, Gettysburg, and will spare no effort to conduct it in a manner that will not detract from its former high reputation. His table-chambers are spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of beers and liquors. There is a large room attached to the Hotel, which will be occupied by attentive hostlers. It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, making his home as near a home to them as possible. He asks a share of the public’s patronage, determined as he is to deserve a large portion of it. Remember, the “Globe Inn” is in York street, but near the Diamond, or Public Square street, if you want Burgundy, COBEAN & nearly opposite the Court-House, where he will be pleased to conduct it with the same care and attention that will give general satisfaction.

His table will have the best of markets to offer.

His chambers are spacious and comfortable—and he has laid in for his bar a full stock of choice wines and liquors. There is nothing to detract from its former high reputation.

It will be his constant endeavor to render the fullest satisfaction to his guests, making his home as near a home to them as possible.

The “Deserter” ACT.

Opinion of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

A Deserter must be convicted by a Court Martial before he can be disfranchised.

THE HUBER vs. REILY CASE.

At the last October election, in Franklin county, a so-called “Deserter” was refused his vote by a Republican Election Judge. The case was taken to Court, and Judge King, (a Republican,) decided against the Election Judge, inflicting a fine, and declaring that the Election Judge acted illegally in refusing said vote. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court of the State, and that tribunal sustained the decision of Judge King.

The opinion of the Supreme Court sets, among other things, this important point, that no man is in law a deserter until he is convicted, and that the only evidence of his desertion is the record of his conviction; and further, that Election officers cannot sit in judgment upon deserters.

Judge Strong delivered the opinion of the Court, as follows:

* * * The fifth article of the amendments to the Constitution ordains that no person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall any person be compelled to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor shall any person be denied the equal protection of the laws.

Article 13, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 14, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 15, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 16, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 17, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 18, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 19, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 20, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 21, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 22, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 23, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 24, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

Article 25, section 3, of the act of March 3, 1863, which declared that any person failing to report after due service
of notice that had been drafted, shall be
deemed a deserter, enacted that such a
person “shall be arrested by the provost
marshal and sent to the nearest military
post for trial by court martial, and shall
be punished according to his offense.”

W. A. DUNCAN,
Chairman Democratic County Com.—
October 1, 1868.

A Desperate Game!

TRADE OF TICKETS!!

The Radicals have settled down on one or two of their candidates, for whom they will make an effort to trade off the balance. Democrats, of course, will be on their guard. Make no trades. When a Radical approaches you with a proposal on that he will vote for one of our men if you vote for one of theirs, tell him you "can't see it"; for the Democracy of Adams county have the power, and intent to elect their whole ticket by a handsome majority.

Democrats and Conservatives, don't forget the Mass Meeting to be held in Gettysburg on Thursday next. COME! ALL COME! and participate in one of the grandest political demonstrations ever had here. Clymer will be with us.

The Democratic Mass Meeting at York on Monday last was the largest ever held there. From ten to fifteen thousand people were present. The procession, from four to six men deep, required one hour and a quarter to pass given point. Clymer, Doolittle, Vaux, Black and Hepburn made speeches. The fire was burning brightly in "Old Democratic York."

Gen. Custer has been ordered to Missouri. Good! Radical mobocrats will find him a tough customer to deal with.

To the Democrats and Conservative Men of Adams County.

How the Tickets are to be Voted.

Read this Carefully.

Democrats! Conservative Men! Victory, a glorious victory, is within your grasp.

You have right, truth and justice on your side.

The cohorts of the Northern Disunionists, the blind followers of such traitors as Thaddeus Stevens, are in minority in Pennsylvania to-day.

A full poll of the Democratic vote of the old Keystone State, with the aid to be derived from those true friends of the country who have shown their readiness to abandon party for the sake of principle, will elect Hester Clymer by a large majority, and overthrow the Radical revolutionists forever.

Shall this glorious consummation be achieved?

Never had men greater incentives to exertion than you have in the present contest.

Your opponents declare that the Union, to save which Pennsylvania so freely gave the blood of her bravest and best, shall not be restored.

They are ready to mutilate, annul and destroy the Constitution framed by your fathers, and to overturn the form of free government bequeathed to you by the patriots and sages of the Revolution.

They are laboring to arouse a permanent war of races, and are ready to precipitate the country into another civil war, in order that they may maintain their hold on the power they have so much abused.

They unscrupulously declare their purpose of punking the negro the political and social equal of the white man, and, if they succeed in carrying the coming elections, they will claim that the people of the North have endorsed that odious proposition.

All conservative men desire to see the Union speedily and perfectly restored.

They wish to see the Constitution safely preserved.

They desire peace, lasting and permanent peace.

They are resolved that the supremacy of the white race shall be maintained.

Such are the vital issues in the present all important political contest.

John W. Geary is the candidate of the Radicals, and he boasts that he endorses all their views as fully as ever Thaddeus Stevens did.

Hester Clymer, one of the purest patriots and most accomplished statesmen of the Republic, is the Conservative candidate.

Which of these men shall be the next Governor of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

It is for you, the Democrats and Conservative men of Adams county, in connection with your fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, to say.

We are perfectly sure that a full poll of the Democratic and Conservative vote will overwhelm the Radicals with defeat. This we say knowingly, and not for the purpose of political effect.

If we are beaten in the present contest we will have no one to blame but ourselves. Through our own apathy and indifference the enemies of the country will have triumphed over us, and we shall live to curse ourselves for neglect of duty when it will be too late to repair the injury done.

Democrats of Adams county! You polled THREE THOUSAND VOTES for George B. McClellan, in the face of the fiercest opposition any party ever encountered.—You can and will do better than that for Hester Clymer. But, you must work as you never did in all your lives before to swell your vote. Not a single man who will vote the Conservative ticket must be left at home. In this contest every citizen must labor with all the might that is in him, and there is no one who cannot help forward the great cause.

Go to work, then, with the determination that should characterize freemen in such a struggle. Remember that the best and dearest interest of your country are at stake, and that the result of the present contest will tell for weal or woe upon yourself and upon your posterity after you.

See your neighbor—talk to him—try to convince him of the error of his ways, if he is not already firm in the true faith.

Organize fully for the contest. See that ways are provided to convey every voter to the polls. Have vigilance committees of your best men appointed who will set to it that no frauds are perpetrated and no impositions practiced. Organize perfectly—work earnestly and unceasingly until the last vote is polled; and then see that there is a fair and honest count of the ballots.

We speak to you thus plainly and earnestly because it is necessary that you should do your whole duty. The time for action has come. Improve every hour that remains. Remember that upon you, reader, the responsibility of maintaining the right rests, as much upon you as any other man in the commonwealth.

The political sky is bright. When we tell you that victory is within your grasp we tell you but the truth. WITH A FULL POLL OF THE DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE VOTE WE CANNOT BE DEFEATED.

Let this assurance cheer you and encourage you to discharge your whole duty. With earnest and unceasing work, VICTORY IS SURE.

McConaughy's "deserter law" was intended to disgrace and disfranchise many of the best soldiers in the State—men who fought gallantly, (whilst he stayed at home) and served out their time faithfully. Hunker voted for McConaughy's bill. Will those whom he has thus sought to outrage vote for him again?

The Radicals have nothing to say about the MILLIONS lavished upon the "loyal Southerners" in the Geary all-wool Convention, wishes it understood, through the New York Herald, that he withdrew from that mixed gathering of shaves, amulets, black and women in bushes. He says the hounds go with their body ever farther than their own vices could justify, and he "washes his hands, from this time forth, of all its proceedings." Too much wool for the General.

Colonel John W. Hicks, of Duncansville, Pennsylvania, a brave soldier, formerly a Republican, has left that party and announced his intention of supporting Colonel Filler for the Legislature in the Bedford District. In alluding to the fact that the Radicals had refused to place a soldier on their ticket, Colonel Hicks says:

It could not be expected that any soldier would get a nomination in any convention which Radicals controlled, if they had an old civilian political hook to serve. It is the same in this county as in Bedford. Soldiers have been over-slaughted always, only when common decency and a slight observance of their professed principles (?) demand it, in fact the soldier "played out" among that class, and no soldier need expect any permanent at their hands.

The Radicals threaten, if successful, at the fall elections, to impeach the President! Would not such a high-handed outrage convulse the country from centre to circumference? Would it not lead to another war, more general and bloody than the last? Lovers of peace and prosperity, will you vote with the Radicals, and thus assist them in carrying out this devilish design?

Gen. Custer has been ordered to Missouri. Good! Radical mobocrats will find him a tough customer to deal with.

GEN. GRANT ON THE WITNESS STAND.

A Rooster Squashed.

The Philadelphia Sunday Mercury has the following among its special telegrams from Washington:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Gen. Grant departs the reports in circulation concerning his preference as regards a vote in your State. The General says "his record is that of a soldier, and he has condemned the practice of officers making political capital off of the records of the army." It is not in accordance with his way of doing things.

The General regrets exceedingly that his name has been mixed up with local politics. The report, as published, is a tissue of falsehoods. Gen. Grant never made use of the language attributed to him. He is a warm supporter of the President's policy, and is doing all in his power to influence every one to the same way of thinking.

GEN. FREMONT.

The Republican candidate for President in 1856, and who, during the rebellion, was the idol of the Republicans, is a strenuous friend of Andrew Johnson, and endorses his policy in toto. He was a delegate to the monster Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention that assembled at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 17th ult.—Convention composed of the very flower of the army and navy, and embracing in its list of delegates nearly every man of note belonging to either branch. Fremont, we say, was there, to assist to save the Union from the clutches of the infernal disunionists and arrant traitors who now menace it. Friends of Fremont!—fall into line, and help save the Union.

REAR ADMIRAL FARRAGUT.

Wrote a letter to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, at Cleveland, endorsing its objects. He says ANDREW JOHNSON is right and the Radicals wrong. Like GRANT, he wants PEACE, and insists that the Union has been restored. He deprecates the insane and treasonable plotings of the Radicals, and calls upon his countrymen to put down the men who dare to strike tea stars from the American flag. Freemen!—can you, will you disregard the words of FARRAGUT?

SLOCUM ON THE SITUATION.

Read what the brave Slocum, of the Twentieth Corps—the General who commanded Geary—has to say of the fact which is now using Geary as a means for accomplishing their own selfish purposes:

"There exists among us a political party which for the purpose of retaining power, has prevented the restoration of the Union, which was to be the sole object of the war, a party which would hold a portion of the States in subjection, teaching the rising generation in both sections lessons of jealousy and hatred, instead of seeking to make them forget the bitter past, and become, as they must become, if our Union is ever to be of value, one people in interest and feeling. This party, until Congress assembled, indignantly denied any intention of postponing the restoration of the Union, and appealed to the people to vote on the grounds of being the only faithful and reliable friends of the President and his policy. This must has now been dropped, and the issue before the people is clear and unmistakable. Let those who fought for a restoration of the Union now come forward and vote for it, and our victory is assured."

Will the "Boys in Blue" follow the brave soldier, Gen. Slocum, or the "hero of Snicker'sville?"

From the Bedford Gazette.

A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY!

Who bids? Who bids?

François Jordan, Esq., Chairman of the Radical State Committee, has written a letter to C. W. Ashmun, Esq., stating that Congress has passed no law discriminating against white soldiers and in favor of the Blacks! But, mark you, he does not deny that Congress did pass a bill giving $300 bounty to the negroes. Not a bit of it! He knows that to be a fact susceptible of proof by the official records of Congress. But we will not allow Mr. Jordan to dumb-fuddle even the most ignorant and credulous. We now offer to bid $100 with any Radical who will dare to take us up, that Congress did pass a bill giving the negro soldiers a bounty of $300! The issue of the day were discussed in an able and convincing manner.

ALL RIGHT ALONG THE LINE.

The Democracy are jubilant in this section. The cheering reports of Clymer's prospects from all parts of the State, added to the notable fizzle of the disunionists in this city on the 23d, have given them renewed hope and confidence. A report is in circulation that Gov. Curtin, upon his arrival from the western part of the State, announced that it was "all up with Geary!" This has added to the general satisfaction among Democrats.—Harriburg Patriot & Union.

AN INCIDENT IN GEARY'S HISTORY.

In the year 1861, John W. Geary, then a poor Colonel—like his friend Foreign—purchased from an honest farmer, who then occupied, and still occupies, a stall in the Eastern Market in this city, POTATOES, CABBAGE, and other vegetables, to the amount of thirty-five dollars and thirty-three cents, for which he persistently refuses to pay, notwithstanding the aforesaid farmer has written to him on several occasions demanding payment to him. We have this bit of information from the farmer himself, and if any of his friends are anxious to see the victim of the Hero of Snicker'sville, he can be found at his stalls in the Eastern Market any day in the week.—Philadelphia Mercury.

WORKING MEN.

We speak to you not as a Democrat or Republican, but as an honest, laboring, earnest self-supporting and government maintaining man, and we speak in all candor and earnestness.

If you vote for radicalism this fall you vote for us.

A dissolution of the Union.

Another rebellion will end in a general, terrible revolution.

Depriving restored States of their honor and rights.

To tax a people without giving them representation.

To educate one section to hate another. You also vote.

To continue in power the most corrupt, dishonest, law hating leaders a party or country was ever cursed with, and to pile up mountains of debts for your innocent children to pay.

If you vote for Democracy and a restoration of the Union, vote for The equality of the States.

Taxation and representation to go together.

For a peaceful Union.

For the good of an entire country, rather than a small section of it.

For equal taxation.

For lessening your own taxes.

For protecting working men.
